The following network illustrates the collaborations among the last 10,000 authors of vitamin D studies appearing in MEDLINE. Authors in red font are members of the Vitamin D Council, an organization which unequivocally recommends daily doses in excess of 2000 IU. Members of the VDC have said that there is practically no safe upper limit of vitamin D intake.

Source: GoPubMed.com, last updated August 7, 2009